HORSE FENCE

Fencing has just become easier, faster and more affordable than ever before with the revolutionary new Horse X Fence.

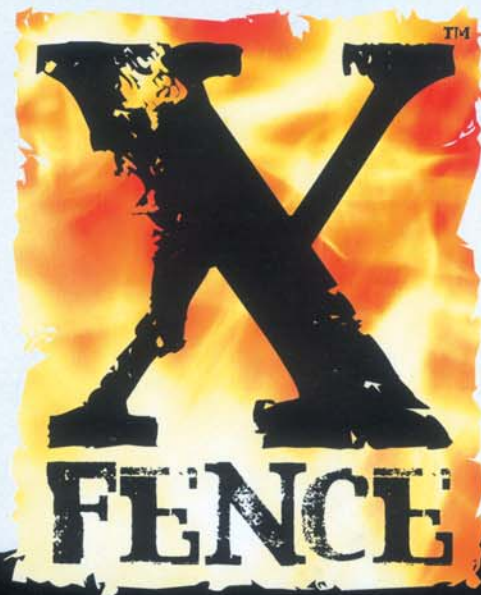

Delivering all the gains - without any pain.

That's why it's your unbeatable option for all future boundary and subdivisional fencing.

Visually appealing, tough, resilient and easy to erect, it's got the X factor written all over it and will deliver major dividends for your next fencing subdivision.

From its unique X shaped knot to its revolutionary forged stiffstay manufacturing technology, Horse X Fence promises new dimensions in horse security that simply can't be overlooked.
